

This petition by K8AD is the only petition that seems to make sense to me. Extra Class Licensees should know some code proficiency since they gain some much additional band space in the code portions of the bands. Dropping the code for everyone would seem to disregard the great history of Amateur radio and its roots in experimentation.